

THE NEW JEWEL OF THE ANDALUSIAN CAPITAL

Opened in autumn 2016, the Mercer is the new luxury hotel in Sevilla, set in the heart of historic center of the city, near the Plaza Nueva and next to the emblematic bullring La Maestranza. Our boutique 5*GL -with spectacular Rooms and Suites- is a unique place where guests can find exclusivity and a singular experience.

The hotel is located in the Casa Palacio Castelar, a beautiful palace dating from 1880, which has preserved its original structure around a typical Andalusian courtyard. The architectural renovation of the Casa Palacio Castelar Palace has commissioned to the prestigious architects Cruz y Ortiz. And the Mercer team has been responsible for selecting each and every one of the details of the hotel, with an exquisite design.

Mercer philosophy is based on the combination of the cultural heritage and the unique personality of our luxury hotels buildings, with the excellence of a service exclusively focused on overcoming the highest expectations of our guests. Therefore, we bring together the tangible with the intangible to create unforgettable experiences with every stay, with the unmistakable mark #MercerStyle.

The Mercer Hotel, with luxury Rooms and Suites, is located in a small palace from the 19th century that has been carefully restored to preserve its architectural treasures, while incorporating all modern facilities to wrap guests in absolute comfort. The hotel interior design sought to set off the building's historical features with the use of refined furniture in a contemporary design and modern materials. All of this is complemented by the expressionist art of Agustí Puig.

THE GASTRONOMY AT MERCER SEVILLA

The María Luisa, whose name comes from Seville's largest park which was donated to the city in 1893 by the Infanta María Luisa de Borbón, Duchess of Montpensier, has been devised as if it were a small box of chocolates: An intimate venue with capacity for about 18 people with an impeccable interior design.

The restaurant also provides the gourmet Mercer breakfasts, for guests to start the day in the most delicious way.

FIZZ Bar, also open to the public, is an elegant space in which to relax and enjoy the hotel cocktail culture: Artisanal cocktails accompanied by a selection of delicious snacks.

On the hotel rooftop you will find the wonderful Mercer terrace, with pool, solarium, Pool Bar service: An oasis of peace in the historic center of Seville, designed and conceived for the absolute relaxation of our guests.
