Aurora, the light of Seville

Metropol Parasol

Metropol Parasol popularly known as Las Setas (the mushrooms) is the largest wooden structure in the world, designed by architect Jürgen Meyer in the Plaza de la Encarnación. It houses a traditional market, restaurants, the Antiquarium archaeological museum and it's crowned with a viewpoint over the old town. Every night it offers Aurora, a light show that lights up Seville.

Festival of Nations

From 22nd September to 29th October

This Festival celebrates its 39th edition in the gardens of El Prado de San Sebastián. During 5 weeks, Seville is transformed into an international destination thanks to this event which travels to different cities around the world to bring its culture, gastronomy and crafts to Seville. Of course, there is no shortage of shows and musical programming.

Thursday Market

Feria Street

It's a famous outdoor market for being the oldest one in Spain. This market takes place every Thursday from centuries ago. The origin is unknown, although it's thought it started before the conquest of Sevilla by King Fernando III from Castilla. Nowadays, it's an antiques and second-hand market.

Nights at the Alcazar

Check the concerts schedule

Once again, the concert series Nights in the Gardens of the Real Alcázar concludes its 24th edition as one of the undisputed plans of the summer. The programme of this musical festival, made up of 75 concerts, runs until 16th September.
